

Development of the Occupational Therapy Model which streamlines effective service provision and maximises the role of all OT staff across the health and social care arrangements

**Change Management will underpin all transformational activities*

