

Welcome and introduction

Healthcare
Improvement
Scotland

Dr Colin Peters (Chair)

MCQIC Neonatal Clinical Lead
Healthcare Improvement Scotland

 @mcqicspsp

#spspmcqi

Maternity and Children Quality Improvement Collaborative (MCQIC)

Maternity and Neonatal Webinar: Bronchopulmonary Dysplasia (BPD)

16 March 2021

Aims of the webinar

- To look into how your role in planning pre-natal, intrapartum and immediate post birth actions can improve outcomes.
- To provide networking opportunity to share learning, experiences and ask questions.

“Your action, their future - how you can help drive down BPD rates in Scotland”

Agenda

Time	Topic	Lead
10.00-10.05	Welcome and Introductions	Dr Colin Peters (Chair) , Neonatal Clinical Lead, MCQIC Healthcare Improvement Scotland
10.05-10.10	Why a focus on Bronchopulmonary Dysplasia reduction is necessary	Dr Colin Peters , Neonatal Clinical Lead, MCQIC Healthcare Improvement Scotland
10.10-10.25	Overview of the measures Q&A Session	Dr Colin Peters , Neonatal Clinical Lead, MCQIC Healthcare Improvement Scotland
10.25-10.35	Presentation on BPD from maternity perspective	Marianne White , Infant Feeding Advisor NHS Tayside Stephanie Gardiner , Midwifery Team Lead, NHS Tayside
10.35-10.45	Presentation on BPD from neonatal perspective	Dr Jen Mitchell , Consultant Neonatologist NHS Greater Glasgow and Clyde
10.45-10.55	Q&A Session	Dr Colin Peters , Neonatal Clinical Lead, MCQIC Healthcare Improvement Scotland
10.55-11.00	Next Steps	Dr Colin Peters , Neonatal Clinical Lead, MCQIC Healthcare Improvement Scotland
11.00	Close

Next steps

- Sharing of the BPD Measurement Plan
- Sharing of the BPD Toolkit for testing and data collection
- Networking opportunity for maternity and neonatal staff via Microsoft Teams channel

Keep in touch

 his.mcqic@nhs.scot

 @mcqicspsp

To find out more visit ihub.scot

