

Agenda

Title: SPSP Acute Adult Collaborative Launch Event
 Date: Wednesday 22 September 2021
 Time: Morning Session:
 10:45am – 11:45am
 Venue: MS Teams

Aims of the Morning Session

Explore :

- the history and current work of the Scottish Patient Safety Programme (SPSP)
- the next phase of the SPSP Acute Adult work, and
- future collaborative improvement work focused on reducing harm and improving patient safety.

Time	Topic	Lead
10.45	Welcome, housekeeping & aims of the day <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Importance of the work 	Simon Watson (chair) Medical Director Healthcare Improvement Scotland
11:00	The next phase of SPSP <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Look back to look forward • Wider SPSP programme • History of SPSP • Essentials of Safe Care 	Jo Matthews Head Of Improvement Support & Safety Healthcare Improvement Scotland
11:20	Introducing the SPSP Acute Adult Collaborative Who is taking part <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Co-design of the collaborative • What is a break-through series collaborative • Collaborative expectations (boards and HIS) • Summary of work stream aims • Data and measurement • Summary of afternoon session 	Claire Mavin Portfolio Lead, Acute Care Portfolio Healthcare Improvement Scotland
11:40	Instructions for afternoon session	Simon Watson (chair) Medical Director Healthcare Improvement Scotland
11:45	Close	